New Business:

CCF First There event Fundraiser – LA

- LA briefly spoke about David Guernsey's role within CCA Fund Raiser.
- MW stated are we really getting our bang for our buck having David on board!
- CCA should be paying David Guernsey's paycheck up to the August event and remaining pay should be coming from the CCF.
- LN added we should see what his 6-month plan would look like.
Surrounding John with talent. Building the right team around him

CCA/CCF January "Annual" meeting - LA

- Invite John Glowacki to the January meeting as well as the PJ's, TACP and Grey Beret Associations/Foundations.
- Should we include a spouse within the association that could contribute?
- The person selected is very important. Broad perspective within the career field, build relationships outside the organization. Wives sub-committee.
- Planning events and possibly help at fundraisers.

CCA Elections – NT

- NT updated the board that the elections for three new board members went off without any issues. The polling system within Wild Apricot worked flawless and setting up the elections within this platform was simple.
- NT stated he phoned each of the members that won the election (Mike Lamonica, Mike West and Spencer Cocanour) to congratulate and welcome them to the board beginning January 1, 2022. Additionally, he phoned Phillip Ward who did not gain the votes needed to serve on the board to thank him for running and that there are many committees that are available within the CCA to assist with. Phillip was positive and said he' volunteer wherever needed in the near future.

Forrest Sibley Memorial Bridge – NT

- NT shared that the Forrest Sibley Memorial Bridge dedication was a success.
- David Standridge, the Alabama State Representative was key to seeing the legislation passed for the naming of the bridge.
- The CCA sent a plaque to Col. Jesse Owens to present to David at the Memorial Bridge dedication. Col. Owens stated that Col Parker or Chief Ibsen would present the plaque.
- Brent expressed he was extremely honored and blessed to be a part of the CCA and thankful for all that has transpired.
